- ANALYZE THE FOLLOWING SIMPLE SENTENCES INTO SENTENCE PARTS IN THE USUAL WAY.

- INDICATE THE WORD CLASS OF EACH UNDERLINED WORD BY PLACING ONE OF THE FOLLOWING ABBREVIATIONS BENEATH THE LINE: NOUN, N; ADJECTIVE, ADJ; ADVERB, ADV; VERB, V; PRONOUN, PRN; PREPOSITION, PREP; Determiner, DET.

(1)   The recent elections in Hong Kong have produced an encouraging result.

(2)   The riots on housing estates in Tyneside last week had led to 261 arrests.

(3)   All criminal charges against Oliver North were dropped on Monday.

(4)   In the first two days of ground fighting, three brigades of the First Division destroyed Iraqi trenches with earth movers and ploughs.

(5)   Construction unions in New York have long been criticized for their exclusion of racial minority groups.

(6)   For over 50 years Barney has been helping people with their hair and scalp problems.

(7)   Cleo the Camel now won't eat anything except smoked salmon sandwiches.

(8)   The panel will meet twice during the campaign.