

Phrasal verb BE

➡ BE AFTER: try to find or get

If it's more of a deal you are after rather than a cap on what you are spending then Vodafone has just revealed a new tv deal in the UK with Sky. (Vodafone.com)

➡ BE DOWN: be reduced or less

The firm's profits are down by ten percent this quarter.

➡ BE OUT OF: have no more left

We can still fix faults if your device is out of warranty, but you'll be charged.

➡ BE FED UP WITH: be bored, upset or sick of something

Alternate Brands - Small prices. If you are fed up with paying too much for fragrances, cosmetics, name brand clothing and just about anything else. we can save you a lot of money. So thank you for visiting (Ebay)

➡ BE OUT TO: attempt

This heavy metal church is out to prove that God rocks. (Brut)

➡ BE UP: have increased or risen

While data for the second half of 2016 is yet to be published, the UK's environmental enablers for entrepreneurs are up 13 percentage points in five years and, encouragingly, 4 percentage points higher than in 2015. (Barclays.com)

➡ BE INTO: like

This book is a must if you are into Russian history (amazon.com)

➡ BE IN ON: be involved in

This company is in on the scam and you will be out of your product and money if you ship here. (Ebay)

➡ BE CUT OUT FOR: be suitable, have the necessary qualities

A sophisticated circle handle is cut out for you to grab and go.(Ebay)

➡ BE SNOWED UNDER: have too much work

The Bobblesberg Winter Games are approaching, and the team assigned to build the courses is snowed under. (Ket)