Listening 18

- Area of law: In this listening a lawyer gives advice to a client who is making a claim in court. The subject of the conversation is breach of contract.
- Listening task: There are 10 questions about the conversation written below. Answer the questions with a few words or a full sentence in the space provided under each question.
- Timing: This listening is 5 minutes and 55 seconds long.
- 1. On which day of the week is Mr Price's appearance in court?
- 2. What is the name of the lawyer who will be representing Mr Price in court?
- 3. What is the full name of the defendant in this case?
- 4. Mr Price mentions that his hotel business had two requirements of the new software he purchased from the defendant. Name one of those two requirements.
- 5. What date does Mr Price say is one of the most profitable nights of the year for his hotel?

6. What credit facility did Mr Price request from his bank in February? 7. How much income does Mr Price estimate he lost as a direct result of the software not working properly in the period between the software being installed and bringing the case to court? Mr Price had to employ two extra employees as a result of the software not working properly. On 8. what basis were these two extra people employed with reference to their working hours? Which particular clause in the contract is the defendant relying upon in court according to the 9. defence documents? Name one of the two pieces of legislation that Mr Price's lawyer intends to rely upon in court. 10.