Wish

A	You can say 'I wish you luck / all the best / a happy birthday' etc.:  I wish you all the best in the future.  I saw Mark before the exam and he wished me luck.
	We say 'wish somebody something ' (luck / a happy birthday etc.). But you cannot say 'I wish that something happens '. We use hope in this situation. For example: <ul> <li>I'm sorry you're not well. I hope you feel better soon. (not I wish you feel)</li> </ul>
	Compare I wish and I hope:  I wish you a pleasant stay here.  I hope you have a pleasant stay here. (not I wish you have)
В	We also use wish to say that we regret something, that something is not as we would like it.  When we use wish in this way, we use the past ( knew/lived etc.), but the meaning is present: I wish I knew what to do about the problem. (I don't know and I regret this)  I wish you didn't have to go so soon. (you have to go)  Do you wish you lived near the sea? (you don't live near the sea)  Jack's going on a trip to Mexico soon. I wish I was going too. (I'm not going)
	To say that we regret something in the past, we use wish + had (had known / had said) etc.:  I wish I'd known about the party. I would have gone if I'd known. (I didn't know)  It was a stupid thing to say. I wish I hadn't said it. (I said it)
	For more examples, see Units 39 and 40.
C	<ul> <li>I wish I could (do something) = I regret that I cannot do it:</li> <li>I'm sorry I have to go. I wish I could stay longer. (but I can't)</li> <li>I've met that man before. I wish I could remember his name. (but I can't)</li> <li>I wish I could have (done something) = I regret that I could not do it:</li> <li>I hear the party was great. I wish I could have gone. (but I couldn't go)</li> </ul>
D	You can say 'I wish (somebody) would (do something)'. For example:
	I wish it would stop raining.  It's been raining all day. Tanya doesn't like it. She says:  I wish it would stop raining.  Tanya would like the rain to stop, but this will probably not happen.
	We use I wish would when we would like something to happen or change. Usually, the speaker doesn't expect this to happen.
	or change. Usually, the speaker doesn't expect this to happen.  We often use I wish would to complain about a situation:  The phone has been ringing for five minutes. I wish somebody would answer it.
	we often use I wish would to complain about a situation:  The phone has been ringing for five minutes. I wish somebody would answer it.  I wish you'd do (= you would do) something instead of just sitting and doing nothing.  You can use I wish wouldn't to complain about things that people do repeatedly:
