You are the designated Administrator for your ChemDraw/ChemOffice subscription. The following options are available to distribute software to your user community.

1. User Self-Registration

<https://informatics.perkinelmer.com/sitesubscription/>

Here users can self-download and self-activate their software following directions in the Quick-Start Guide. If you choose this option, be sure to share the Self Registration Link with your users!

2. Bulk Activation

By following the instructions in the Institutional ChemDraw Activation Process guide, Bulk Activation allows Administrators to deploy and distribute a pre-packaged version of ChemDraw to users.

3. Download Center

Institutional ChemDraw Activation Process guide details how Administrators can add and manage users access in the Download Center.

Please note that if the licensing model purchased by you permits you (or another end-user) to use this product past its End-of-Life date (for example, as with a perpetual license), technical support, updates, activations, codes, and downloads will no longer be provided for any product or version that has reached End-Of-Life.
